

SETTING UP EXERCISES DONE IN QUINTUPLET STYLE

CECILE EMILIE MARIE YVONNE ANNETTE
Here we find Marie and Yvonne demonstrating the proper way to do setting up exercises. Marie looks at you from between her legs, perhaps wondering if you realize the strenuousness of this particular exercise. Cecile and Emilie, at left, are wondering why all the attention is centered on this sisterly gymnast, while Annette, right, anxiously awaits the ringing of the noonday meal bell. No attention is paid to the warning of their nurse, who fears an accident if this bending doesn't stop.

MARIE YVONNE EMILIE CECILE
It's a "well" time until rudely interrupted by the cameraman. Annette seems to be during the lensman to take one more picture of her; Marie is successfully poking her way into the picture; Yvonne rubs her nose. Let's hope she isn't catching a cold; Emilie yawns, apparently weary of it all, while Cecile seems terribly bored. Oh dear!

Savants on "Liberty" Radicals Scored By Philosophers

Emphatic in his denunciation of forms of government that interfere with "fundamental human rights," Dr. John Dewey, dean of American philosophers, was still the object of scholarly discussion today—pro and con—as Harvard's forty-second ended its first week.

Dr. Dewey spoke to 300 full American and European scholars on "Autocracy and Democracy in Social Change." More interested today were the students in an attempt to find the meaning of "liberty." Dr. Dewey pointed out that he had no regard for radicals who played and who lived with their hands in the air, generally mistaking the state. But the state was an instrument to be used by the people. When the state does the individual, it is a dictatorship. In Europe today, liberty has become a phrase in its true sense.

In answer to questions on the meaning of "liberty," Dr. Dewey said: "Free discussion is more important than free experiment. In a country that permits its scientists and engineers, each hand to carry on their work is not permitting free liberty."

"As a matter of fact, it would be absurd to regulate such as to call it 'liberty.'"

"Dietrichshagen in Europe today is scientific technique to support an unscientific society."

"Free use of human intellect is the true meaning of liberty."

Prowler Suspect Wedged in Wall

Providence, Sept. 5.—Sleeping residents of a flower store apartment were aroused today by muffled cries for help.

On investigating they saw a man, small, dark, wedged between the main building wall and an air shaft just above the fifth floor window, 30 feet from the ground.

Police called the fire department and the firemen brought down the man.

He gave his name as Herbert Conner, 36, of North Main street. He was unable to explain how he got wedged between the building walls.

Catholic Society to Aid War on Reds

New York, Sept. 5.—Arthur J. Hughes, Chicago attorney and president of the Notre Dame National Alumni Association, who was in town today, will offer to the Pope the assistance of the Notre Dame National Alumni Association in the Catholic church's fight of Communism.

"All the facilities, prestige and influence of the Notre Dame National Alumni Association will be offered the Holy Father to help check the spread of Communism throughout the world," Hughes declared.

Jessie M'Allister Of Medford, Weds

Friend of Louis Blanshard M'Allister, of Medford, married with surprise today at her wedding, 100 West Main street, Medford, N. Y.

Mrs. M'Allister became the bride of Stanley N. Helin, of Chicago, on July 25, according to the announcement of her mother, Mrs. M. M'Allister, of 71 Lawrence street, Medford.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High School, the Wilbur Academy of Beauty Culture and is a sister of James P. M'Allister, assistant manager of the Keith Memorial Theater.

Helin graduated from the University of Chicago in 1932 and is president of the Phi Chi Theta Fraternity. He is district supervisor for New England of a large insurance company.

The couple plan to make their home, temporarily, in Medford.

Rich Rail Magnate Shot in Head

Sturtevant, Conn., Sept. 5 (AP).—State police announced today that Harry E. Byrum, 72, retired railroad executive, had been admitted to the Sturtevant Hospital with a gunshot wound to the head.

Investigator Irving T. Elnor, state police inspector at Waterbury, declined to discuss the details of the shooting, but said an arrest was expected in the next 24 hours.

Dr. Harry S. Fletcher, with the military and former president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad, suffered the wound yesterday morning.

Byrum, resident in the fashionable Greenfield section of Waterbury, was 72 years old, single, and had been a member of the local and national associations in an automobile accident, and was in Waterbury.

Judge Davis Dies

Wilton, Sept. 5.—Judge Charles Theodore Davis of Marlborough died here at the age of 73. He was believed to be the oldest judge in the state.

Writing Aspirants

ONE OF THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE TWO...

[illegible]

Franklin doesn't know how one goes about becoming a sport writer, a stringer, a gossip, in which the young reporters may mistake for bookends of their work in an effort to do it the "Franklin" way. The very procedure is to get a minor job at a minor salary and, like Lopez, just "go through the stages of writing, writing, writing, and then, off to some other place, off to some other day, off to some other or to an unpleasant

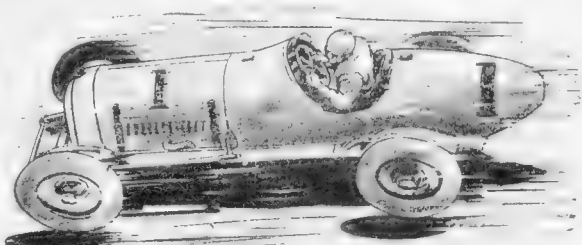

THERE SEEMS TO BE A MISCONCEPTION of a sport writer's life, due largely to stations in the movies and the fiction magazines which portray newspapermen as a picturesque set of rascals with a psychopathic bent to sneering at refinements. They wear their hats a new slant through the mist of their cigarette smoke, soot on their appearances. I certainly did in early attempts at writing long lines, no good and generally rejected by editors in boys—at least in the movies.

THE ENQUIRING KIDS USUALLY ASK whether it is advisable to enter a school of journalism as the sure entry to the newspaper field. And a good deal you can know. It is one of the professions or vocations that the journal school graduates send in crash a metropolitan staff. Or at least, if they do, they keep their backgrounds handily concealed.
